VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT
ENTERING INTO AN EPC CONTRACT FOR NEW ENERGY POWER STATION CONSTRUCTION

This announcement is made by SFQ Global Limited (the “Company”) on a voluntary basis.

The board of directors (“Directors”) of the Company (the “Board”) is pleased to announce that, SFQ HuanYu Limited (賽孚迅寰宇有限公司), a subsidiary of the Company, recently entered into an engineering, procurement and construction contract (the “EPC Contract”) regarding a solar photovoltaic and energy storage system (the “Project”) located in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. The aggregate contract amount is approximately US$41.4 million, comprising approximately US$22.3 million in respect of phase 1 and approximately US$19.1 million in respect of phase 2. The scope of work of the Project involves design, equipment and materials procurement, multimodal transportation to the project site, construction, installation, commissioning, grid-connection, performance testing and related maintenance services.

The Company has been actively exploring new opportunities for business expansion and strategic upgrading. The Company believes that continuing to leverage its strengths in industrial and infrastructure construction projects and expanding beyond Malaysia as its sole market are key drivers for the Company’s further development. Following strategic planning of its business development, the Company believes that the following directions of business expansion and strategic upgrading will further diversify the Company’s revenue sources and enable it to enter high-growth industries and regions: (i) while continuing to concentrate on and develop its current industrial and infrastructure construction business, the Company will further sharpen its focus, within the existing business scope, on new energy power station construction contracting, so as to capture the rapid growth opportunities in the EPC market for new energy power station construction; and (ii) leveraging the regional strengths of the Company and its controlling shareholder in Southeast Asia and Africa, the Company will further expand its business regions from Malaysia to other Southeast Asian countries and the Africa region, thereby diversifying the operating risks associated with a single market and opening up broader market opportunities.

The newly signed EPC Contract constitutes one of the outcomes of the Company's implementation of its new strategic plan. As the entering into of the EPC Contract is in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Company and is of a revenue-generating nature, it does not constitute a disclosable transaction under Chapter 14 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules"). To the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the Directors, and having made all reasonable enquiries, the counterparties of the EPC Contract are all third parties independent from the Company and its connected persons, and therefore the EPC Contract and the transactions contemplated thereunder do not constitute connected transactions under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

Shareholders of the Company and potential investors are reminded to exercise caution when dealing in the shares of the Company.

By Order of the Board
