VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT
REGARDING THE INVESTMENT IN HUIXI TECHNOLOGY

This announcement is made by Shoucheng Holdings Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) on a voluntary basis.

The board of directors of the Company is pleased to announce that recently, the fund managed by a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company under Shoucheng Capital of the Group, has invested in Huixi Technology Co., Ltd.* (北京輝羲科技股份有限公司, “Huixi Technology”). This investment will effectively empower the investee company to advance the iteration and upgrading of its core products and the construction of its industrial ecosystems, further accelerating the implementation process of its full-stack computing power platform for robotics scenarios.

Huixi Technology is committed to developing high-performance computing chips for embodied AI. It has established a complete product system ranging from underlying chips to engineering deployment, covering chips, modules, software stacks and industrial ecosystem layout, and providing systematic technical support to endow robots with a "thinking" intelligent brain. This investment will inject strong development momentum into Huixi Technology's key areas such as research and development iteration of embodied intelligence chips, mass production and inventory preparation of products, and deepening construction of the industrial ecosystem. It will help Huixi Technology continuously optimize the research and development layout of its full-stack computing power platform, and promote computing power to become an “accessible, easy-to-use and reliable” infrastructure that supports the large-scale application of embodied intelligence.

Looking ahead, the Group will continue to increase its investment layout in cutting-edge technologies unwaveringly and deepen strategic cooperation with high-quality enterprises in niche sectors. Through capital empowerment and industrial synergy, it will align with the development trend of China's AI infrastructure construction and computing power ecosystem deployment, drive the coordinated development of upstream and downstream industrial chains, and provide solid support for the large-scale commercialization of the robotics industry.
