Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited ("HKEX"), The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange") and Hong Kong Securities Clearing Company Limited take no responsibility for the contents of this document, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this document.

This document, for which we accept full responsibility, includes particulars given in compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Rules") for the purpose of giving information with regard to us. We, having made all reasonable enquiries, confirm that to the best of our knowledge and belief the information contained in this document is accurate and complete in all material respects and not misleading or deceptive, and there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement herein or this document misleading.

This document is for information purposes only and does not constitute an invitation or offer to acquire, purchase or subscribe for the Warrants.

The Warrants are complex products. You should exercise caution in relation to them. Investors are warned that the price of the Warrants may fall in value as rapidly as it may rise and holders may sustain a total loss of their investment. Prospective purchasers should therefore ensure that they understand the nature of the Warrants and carefully study the risk factors set out in the Listing Documents (as defined below) and this document and, where necessary, seek professional advice, before they invest in the Warrants.

The Warrants constitute general unsecured contractual obligations of us as the Issuer and of no other person and will rank equally among themselves and with all our other unsecured obligations (save for those obligations preferred by law) upon liquidation, administration or an analogous action of the Issuer. If you purchase the Warrants, you are relying upon our creditworthiness, and have no rights under the Warrants against any company constituting the underlying index or the Index Compiler or any other person. In the event of liquidation, administration or an analogous action of the Issuer or if we in any other way become insolvent or default on our obligations under the Warrants, you may not be able to recover all or even part of the amount due under the Warrants (if any).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Warrants are listed structured products which involve derivatives. Do not invest in them unless you fully understand and are willing to assume the risks associated with them.

What documents should you read before investing in the Warrants?

You must read this document together with our base listing document dated 31 March 2026 (the "Base Listing Document") as supplemented by any addendum thereto (together, the "Listing Documents"), in particular the section "Terms and Conditions of the Index Warrants (Cash Settled)" (the "Conditions") set out in our Base Listing Document. The information contained in the Base Listing Document (as supplemented by this document and each addendum referred to in the section headed "Product Summary Statement") is, as at the date of this document, up-to-date, true, accurate and complete in all material respects and there are no other matters the omission of which would make any statement herein or this document misleading. You should carefully study the risk factors set out in the Listing Documents and this document. You should also consider your financial position and investment objectives before deciding to invest in the Warrants. We cannot give you investment advice. You must decide whether the Warrants meet your investment needs before investing in the Warrants.

Is there any guarantee or collateral for the Warrants?

No. Our obligations under the Warrants are neither guaranteed by any third party, nor collateralised with any of our assets or other collaterals. When you purchase our Warrants, you are relying on our creditworthiness only, and of no other person. In the event of liquidation, administration or an analogous action of the Issuer or if we in any other way become insolvent or default on our obligations under the Warrants, you can only claim as an unsecured creditor of the Issuer. In such event, you may not be able to recover all or even part of the amount due under the Warrants (if any).

What are the Issuer's credit ratings?

The Issuer's long-term credit ratings are:

Rating agency	Rating as of the Launch Date
Moody's Investors Service, Inc.	Aa3 (stable outlook)
S&P Global Ratings	AA- (stable outlook)
Fitch Ratings	AA (stable outlook)

Rating agencies usually receive a fee from the companies that they rate. When evaluating our creditworthiness, you should not solely rely on our credit ratings because:

- a credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the Warrants;
- ratings of companies may involve difficult-to-quantify factors such as market competition, the success or failure of new products and markets and managerial competence;
- a high credit rating is not necessarily indicative of low risk. Our credit ratings as set out in this document are for investors' reference only. Any downgrading of our ratings could result in a reduction in the value of the Warrants;
- a credit rating is not an indication of the liquidity or volatility of the Warrants; and
- a credit rating may be downgraded if the credit quality of the Issuer declines.

The Warrants are not rated. The Issuer's credit ratings are subject to change or withdrawal at any time within each rating agency's sole discretion. You should conduct your own research using publicly available sources to obtain the latest information with respect to the Issuer's ratings from time to time.

Is the Issuer regulated by any regulatory authority in Hong Kong referred to in Rule 15A.13(3)?

We are a licensed bank regulated by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority.

Is the Issuer subject to any litigation?

We are a party to legal proceedings and regulatory matters in a number of jurisdictions arising out of our normal business operations. Except as set out in the section headed "Our Interim Financial Statements as at and for the Six-month Period Ended 30 June 2026" of the addendum to our Base Listing Document dated 20 August 2026 (the "Addendum"), we are not aware of any legal proceedings or claims of material importance pending or threatened against us which may have a significant effect on us.

Has our financial position changed since last financial year-end?

Except as set out in the section headed "Our Interim Financial Statements as at and for the Six-month Period Ended 30 June 2026" of the Addendum and Exhibit A and Exhibit B of the Base Listing Document, there has been no material adverse change in our financial or trading position or prospects or indebtedness since 31 December 2025.

PRODUCT SUMMARY STATEMENT

The Warrants are listed structured products which involve derivatives. This statement provides you with key information about the Warrants. You should not invest in the Warrants based on the information contained in this statement alone. You should read and understand the remaining sections of this document, together with the other Listing Documents, before deciding whether to invest.

Overview of the Warrants

- What is a derivative warrant?
  A derivative warrant linked to an index is an instrument which tracks the performance of the underlying index. Derivative warrants may provide a leveraged return to you. Conversely, such leverage could also magnify your losses.

  A call warrant is designed for an investor holding a view that the level of the underlying index will increase during the term of the warrant.

  A put warrant is designed for an investor holding a view that the level of the underlying index will decrease during the term of the warrant.

- How and when can you get back your investment?
  The Warrants are European style cash settled derivative warrants linked to the Index. European style warrants can only be exercised on the expiry date. When the Warrants are exercised, the holder is entitled to a cash amount called the "Cash Settlement Amount" net of any Exercise Expenses (as defined under the heading "Exercise Expenses" in the sub-section titled "What are the fees and charges?" below) according to the terms and conditions in the Listing Documents. If the Cash Settlement Amount is equal to or less than the Exercise Expenses, you will lose all of your investment in the Warrants.

- How do the Warrants work?
  The potential payoff at expiry for the Warrants is calculated by reference to the difference between the Strike Level and the Closing Level of the Index.

  A call Warrant will be automatically exercised at expiry without the need for the holder to deliver an exercise notice if the Closing Level of the Index is above the Strike Level. The more the Closing Level is above the Strike Level, the higher the payoff at expiry. If the Closing Level is at or below the Strike Level, you will lose all of your investment in the call Warrant.

  A put Warrant will be automatically exercised at expiry without the need for the holder to deliver an exercise notice if the Closing Level of the Index is below the Strike Level. The more the Closing Level is below the Strike Level, the higher the payoff at expiry. If the Closing Level is at or above the Strike Level, you will lose all of your investment in the put Warrant.

- Can you sell the Warrants before the Expiry Date?
  Yes. We have made an application for listing of, and permission to deal in, the Warrants on the Stock Exchange. All necessary arrangements have been made to enable the Warrants to be admitted into the Central Clearing and Settlement System ("CCASS"). Issue of the Warrants is conditional upon listing approval being granted. From the Listing Date up to the last trading day of the Warrants (both dates inclusive), you may sell or buy the Warrants on the Stock Exchange. There shall be three CCASS Settlement Days between the last trading day of the Warrants and the Expiry Date. No application has been made to list the Warrants on any other stock exchange.

  The Warrants may only be transferred in a Board Lot (or integral multiples thereof). Where a transfer of Warrants takes place on the Stock Exchange, currently settlement must be made not later than two CCASS Settlement Days after such transfer.

  The Liquidity Provider will make a market in the Warrants by providing bid and/or ask prices. See the section headed "Liquidity" below.

- What is your maximum loss?
  The maximum loss in the Warrants will be your entire investment amount plus any transaction costs.

- What are the factors determining the price of a derivative warrant?
  The price of a derivative warrant generally depends on the level of the underlying index (being the Index for the Warrants). However, throughout the term of a derivative warrant, its price will be influenced by a number of factors, including:

  – the strike level of the derivative warrants;
  – the level and volatility of the underlying index (being a measure of the fluctuation in the level of the underlying index over time);
  – the time remaining to expiry: generally, the longer the remaining life of the derivative warrant, the greater its value;
  – the interim interest rates and expected dividend payments or other distributions on any components comprising the underlying index;
  – the liquidity of the futures contracts relating to the underlying index;
  – the supply and demand for the derivative warrant;
  – our related transaction cost; and
  – the creditworthiness of the issuer of the derivative warrant.

As the price of a derivative warrant is not only affected by the level of the underlying index, movements in the price of a derivative warrant may not be proportionate or may even be opposite to the movement of the level of the underlying index. For example:

- if the level of the underlying index increases (in respect of a call warrant) or decreases (in respect of a put warrant), but the volatility of the level of the underlying index decreases, the price of the warrant may decrease;
- if a warrant is deep-out-of-the-money (eg. when the fair market value is less than HK$0.01), the price of the warrant may be insensitive to any increase (in respect of a call warrant) or decrease (in respect of a put warrant) in the level of the underlying index;
- if the outstanding volume of a series of warrants in the market is high, the supply and demand of the warrant may have a greater impact on the warrant price than the level of the underlying index; and/or
- the decrease in time value may offset any increase (in respect of a call warrant) or decrease (in respect of a put warrant) in the level of the underlying index, especially when the warrant is close to its expiry where the time value decreases at a faster pace.

Risks of investing in the Warrants

You must read the section headed "Key Risk Factors" in this document together with the risk factors set out in the Listing Documents. You should consider all these factors collectively when making your investment decision.

  You should read the sub-section entitled "Possible limited secondary market" under the "Key Risk Factors" section for further information on the key risks when the Liquidity Provider is not able to provide liquidity.

* If the Index level or the prevailing market circumstance changes, the Liquidity Provider can refresh the quote by posting a new pair of quotes. The obligation to maintain the five-minute minimum holding time lapses if any investor has proceeded with a trade with such quote provided by the Liquidity Provider during this period.

What are the fees and charges?

- Trading Fees and Levies
  For each transaction effected on the Stock Exchange, the following trading fees and levies calculated on the value of the consideration for the Warrants will be payable by each of the seller and the buyer:

  (i) a trading fee of 0.00565 per cent. charged by the Stock Exchange;
  (ii) a transaction levy of 0.0027 per cent. charged by the Securities and Futures Commission; and
  (iii) a transaction levy of 0.00015 per cent. charged by the Accounting and Financial Reporting Council.

  The levy for the investor compensation fund is currently suspended.

- Exercise Expenses
  You are responsible for any Exercise Expenses. Exercise Expenses mean any charges or expenses including any taxes or duties which are incurred in respect of the exercise of the Warrants. Any Exercise Expenses will be deducted from the Cash Settlement Amount (if any). If the Cash Settlement Amount is equal to or less than the Exercise Expenses, no amount is payable. As at the date of this document, no Exercise Expenses are payable for cash settled warrants (including the Warrants).

- Stamp Duty
  No stamp duty is currently payable in Hong Kong on transfer of cash settled warrants (including the Warrants).

You should note that any transaction cost will reduce your gain or increase your loss under your investment in the Warrants.

What is the legal form of the Warrants?

Each series of the Warrants will be represented by a global certificate in the name of HKSCC Nominees Limited who is the only legal owner of the Warrants. We will not issue definitive certificates for the Warrants. You may arrange for your broker to hold the Warrants in a securities account on your behalf, or if you have a CCASS Investor Participant securities account, you may arrange for the Warrants to be held in such account. You will have to rely on the records of CCASS and/or the statements you receive from your brokers as evidence of your beneficial interest in the Warrants.

Can we adjust the terms or early terminate the Warrants?

The occurrence of certain events (including, without limitation, a succession of the Index or Index Compiler, modification or cessation of calculation of the Index) may entitle us to adjust the terms and conditions of the Warrants. However, we are not obliged to adjust the terms and conditions of the Warrants for every event that affects the Index.

We may early terminate the Warrants if it becomes illegal or impracticable for us (i) to perform our obligations under the Warrants as a result of a change in law event, or (ii) to maintain our hedging arrangement with respect to the Warrants due to a change in law event. In such event, the amount payable by us (if any) will be the fair market value of the Warrants less our cost of unwinding any related hedging arrangements as determined by us, which may be substantially less than your initial investment and may be zero.

Please refer to Conditions 6 and 7 for details about adjustments or early termination events. Such events may negatively affect your investment and you may suffer a loss.

Mode of settlement for the Warrants

The Warrants will be automatically exercised on the Expiry Date in integral multiples of the Board Lot if the Cash Settlement Amount is positive. If the Cash Settlement Amount is zero or negative, or is equal to or less than the Exercise Expenses, you will lose all of your investment.

We will deliver a cash amount in the Settlement Currency equal to the Cash Settlement Amount net of any Exercise Expenses (if any) no later than the Settlement Date to HKSCC Nominees Limited (as the registered holder of the Warrants), which will then distribute such amount to the securities account of your broker (and if applicable, its custodian) or to your CCASS Investor Participant securities account (as the case may be). You may have to rely on your broker (and if applicable, its custodian) to ensure that the Cash Settlement Amount (if any) is credited to your account maintained with your broker. Once we make the payment to HKSCC Nominees Limited, who operates CCASS, you will have no further right against us for that payment, even if CCASS or your broker (and if applicable, its custodian) does not transfer your share of payment to you, or is late in making such payment transfer.

Payment of the Cash Settlement Amount (if any) may be delayed if a Settlement Disruption Event occurs on the Settlement Date, as a result of which we are unable to deliver such amount through CCASS on such day. See Condition 4(d) for further information.

The offer or transfer of the Warrants is also subject to the selling restrictions specified in our Base Listing Document.

Unless otherwise specified, capitalised terms used in this document have the meanings set out in the Conditions. If this document is inconsistent with our Base Listing Document, this document shall prevail.

KEY RISK FACTORS

You must read these key risk factors together with the risk factors set out in the Listing Documents. These key risk factors do not necessarily cover all risks related to the Warrants. If you have any concerns or doubts about the Warrants, you should obtain independent professional advice.

Non-collateralised structured products
The Warrants are not secured on any of our assets or any collateral.

Credit risk
If you invest in the Warrants, you are relying on our creditworthiness and of no other person (including the ultimate holding company of our group, HSBC Holdings plc). In the event of liquidation, administration or an analogous action of the Issuer or if we in any other way become insolvent or default on our obligations under the Warrants, you can only claim as unsecured creditor regardless of the performance of the Index and you may not be able to recover all or even part of the amount due under the Warrants (if any). You have no rights under the terms of the Warrants against the Index Compiler or any company which has issued any constituent securities of the Index.

Warrants are not principal protected and may expire worthless
Given the gearing feature inherent in the Warrants, a small change in the Index level may lead to a substantial price movement in the Warrants. You may suffer higher losses in percentage terms if you expect the level of the Index to move one way but it moves in the opposite direction.

Unlike stocks, the Warrants have a limited life and will expire on the Expiry Date. In the worst case, the Warrants may expire with no value and you will lose all of your investment. Derivative warrants may only be suitable for experienced investors who are willing to accept the risk that they may lose all their investment.

The Warrants can be volatile
Prices of the Warrants may rise or fall rapidly. You should carefully consider, among other things, the following factors before dealing in the Warrants:
(i) the prevailing trading price of the Warrants;
(ii) the Strike Level of the Warrants;
(iii) the level and volatility of the Index;
(iv) the time remaining to expiry;
(v) the probable range of the Cash Settlement Amount;
(vi) the interim interest rates and expected dividend payments or other distributions on any components comprising the Index;
(vii) the liquidity of the futures contracts relating to the Index;
(viii) the related transaction costs (including the Exercise Expenses, if any);
(ix) the supply and demand for the Warrants; and
(x) the creditworthiness of the Issuer.

The price of a Warrant may be affected by all these factors in addition to the Index level. Therefore, movements in the price of the Warrants may not be proportionate or may even be opposite to the movement in the level of the Index. You should consider all these factors collectively when making your investment decision.

Suspension of trading
If the calculation and/or publication of the Index level by the Index Compiler is suspended for whatever reasons, trading in the Warrants may be suspended for a similar period.

In the event the Index Compiler publishes a notice regarding the occurrence of system outage of the Index Compiler which affects the normal index level dissemination of the Index and failure of the Index Compiler to provide a periodic publication of the index level with respect to the Index at a minimum of every 15 minute interval on its website under the contingency mode (an "Index Disruption Event"), trading in the Warrants will be halted as early as practicable. In such case, we will publish an announcement in relation to the trading halt of the Warrants.

If the Index Compiler publishes a notice (an "index resumption notice") regarding resumption of normal index level dissemination of the Index no later than 15 minutes prior to the end of a continuous trading session, the Warrants will resume trading on the Stock Exchange as early as practicable following the index resumption notice in the same continuous trading session. Otherwise, if the index resumption notice is published less than 15 minutes prior to the end of a continuous trading session, the Warrants will resume trading on the Stock Exchange in the subsequent continuous trading session. Following the publication of the index resumption notice, we will publish an announcement in relation to the resumption of trading of the Warrants.

In such case, the value of the Warrants may be subject to a significant impact of time decay and may fluctuate significantly upon resumption of trading, which may adversely affect your investment in the Warrants.

You should note that outstanding orders of the Warrants will not be automatically cancelled during the trading halt of the Warrants and will remain valid when trading is resumed on the same day. You should contact your broker before resumption of trading if you wish to cancel your order(s) of the Warrants.

Trading halt and resumption of trading arrangements in connection with an Index Disruption Event
You should note that there are potential risks associated with the occurrence of an Index Disruption Event and the implementation of the trading halt and resumption in connection with the Index Disruption Event as specified under the risk factor headed "Suspension of Trading" above (the "Trading Arrangements"), which may adversely affect your investment in the Warrants. The Stock Exchange, HKEX and its affiliates, shall not incur any liability (whether based on contract, tort, (including, without limitation, negligence), or any other legal or equitable grounds and without regard to the circumstances giving rise to any purported claim except in the case of wilful misconduct on the part of the Stock Exchange, HKEX and/or its affiliates) for, any direct, consequential, special, indirect, economic, punitive, exemplary or any other loss or damage suffered or incurred by us or any other party arising from or in connection with the Trading Arrangements or an Index Disruption Event, including without limitation, any delay, failure, mistake or error in the Stock Exchange effecting the Trading Arrangements.

Except in the case of wilful misconduct on the part of us, we and our affiliates shall not have any responsibility for any loss or damage suffered or incurred by any party arising from or in connection with the Trading Arrangements or an Index Disruption Event, including without limitation, any delay, failure, mistake or error in the Trading Arrangements.

Time decay
Without taking into account interim interest rates and expected dividend payments or other distributions on any components comprising the Index and assuming all other factors remain constant, the value of a Warrant is likely to decrease over time. Therefore, the Warrants should not be viewed as a product for long term investments.

Possible limited secondary market
The Liquidity Provider may be the only market participant for the Warrants and therefore the secondary market for the Warrants may be limited. The more limited the secondary market, the more difficult it may be for you to realise the value in the Warrants prior to expiry.

You should also be aware that the Liquidity Provider may not be able to provide liquidity when there are operational and technical problem hindering its ability to do so. Even if the Liquidity Provider is able to provide liquidity in such circumstances, its performance of liquidity provision may be adversely affected. For example:

(i) the spread between bid and ask prices quoted by the Liquidity Provider may be significantly wider than its normal standard;

(ii) the size for which liquidity will be provided by the Liquidity Provider may be significantly smaller than its normal standard; and/or

(iii) the Liquidity Provider's response time for a quote may be significantly longer than its normal standard.

Change of calculation methodology or failure to publish the Index
If there is a material change in the calculation of the Index level or a failure to publish the Index, we may determine the Closing Level on the basis of the method last in effect prior to such change or failure.

Publication of Index level when component shares are not trading
The Index Compiler may publish the Index level at a time when one or more shares comprising the Index are not trading.

Adjustment related risk
The occurrence of certain events (including, without limitation, a succession of the Index or Index Compiler, modification or cessation of calculation of the Index) may entitle us to adjust the terms and conditions of the Warrants. However, we are not obliged to adjust the terms and conditions of the Warrants for every event that affects the Index. Any adjustment or decision not to make any adjustment may adversely affect the value of the Warrants. Please refer to Condition 6 for details about adjustments.

Possible early termination
We may early terminate the Warrants if it becomes illegal or impracticable for us (i) to perform our obligations under the Warrants as a result of a change in law event, or (ii) to maintain our hedging arrangement with respect to the Warrants due to a change in law event. In such event, the amount payable by us (if any) will be the fair market value of the Warrants less our costs of unwinding any related hedging arrangements as determined by us, which may be substantially less than your initial investment and may be zero. Please refer to Condition 7 for details about our early termination rights.

Time lag between exercise and settlement of the Warrants
There is a time lag between exercise of the Warrants and payment of the Cash Settlement Amount net of Exercise Expenses (if any). There may be delays in the electronic settlement or payment through CCASS.

Conflict of interest
We and our subsidiaries and affiliates engage in a wide range of commercial and investment banking, brokerage, funds management, hedging, investment and other activities and may possess material information about the Index or issue or update research reports on the Index. Such activities, information and/or research reports may involve or affect the Index and may cause consequences adverse to you or otherwise create conflicts of interests in connection with the issue of the Warrants. We have no obligation to disclose such information and may issue research reports and engage in any such activities without regard to the issue of the Warrants.

In the ordinary course of our business, we and our subsidiaries and affiliates may effect transactions for our own account or for the account of our customers and may enter into one or more transactions with respect to the Index or related derivatives. This may indirectly affect your interests.

We and/or members of our group (acting as a dealer) may offer commission rebates or other incentives
We and/or members of our group may, from time to time, act in the capacity of a dealer of the Warrants. When acting in such capacity, we and/or members of our group may, in the ordinary course of our/their business, offer commission rebates or other incentives to our/their customers in respect of the Warrants. Your investment decision should not be based solely on the benefit of the offer of such commission rebates or other incentives. Before deciding to invest in the Warrants, you should fully understand the nature and product features of the Warrants and read the Listing Documents, in particular, the risk factors set out in the Listing Documents and where necessary, seek independent professional advice. You should also consider your financial position and investment objectives before deciding to invest in the Warrants.

No direct contractual rights
The Warrants are issued in global registered form and are held within CCASS. You will not receive any definitive certificate and your name will not be recorded in the register of the Warrants. The evidence of your interest in the Warrants, and the efficiency of the ultimate payment of the Cash Settlement Amount net of Exercise Expenses (if any), are subject to the CCASS Rules. You will have to rely on your broker (or, if applicable, its direct or indirect custodians) and the statements you receive from it as evidence of your interest in the Warrants. You do not have any direct contractual rights against us. To assert your rights as an investor in the Warrants, you will have to rely on your broker (and, if applicable, its direct or indirect custodian) to take action on your behalf. If your broker or, if applicable, its direct or indirect custodian:

(i) fails to take action in accordance with your instructions;
(ii) becomes insolvent; or
(iii) defaults on its obligations,

you will need to take action against your broker in accordance with the terms of arrangement between you and your broker to establish your interest in the Warrants first before you can assert your right of claim against us. You may experience difficulties in taking such legal proceedings. This is a complicated area of law and you should seek independent legal advice for further information.

The Listing Documents should not be relied upon as the sole basis for your investment decision
The Listing Documents do not take into account your investment objectives, financial situation or particular needs. Nothing in the Listing Documents should be construed as a recommendation by us or our affiliates to invest in the Warrants or any futures contracts relating to the Index.

Not the ultimate holding company of the group
We are not the ultimate holding company of the group to which we belong. The ultimate holding company of the group to which we belong is HSBC Holdings plc.

Credit ratings
Our credit ratings as set out in this document are for investors' reference only. Any downgrading of our ratings could result in a reduction in the value of the Warrants.

Two or more risk factors may simultaneously affect the Warrants
Two or more risk factors may simultaneously have an effect on the value of a Warrant such that the effect of any individual risk factor may not be predicted. No assurance can be given as to the effect any combination of risk factors may have on the value of a Warrant.

The Financial Institutions (Resolution) Ordinance may adversely affect the Warrants
On 7 July 2017, the Financial Institutions (Resolution) Ordinance (Cap. 628) of Hong Kong (the "FIRO") came into operation. The FIRO provides for, among other things, the establishment of a resolution regime for authorized institutions and other within scope financial institutions in Hong Kong which may be designated by the relevant resolution authorities, which includes us as the issuer of the Warrants. The resolution regime seeks to provide the relevant resolution authorities with administrative powers to bring about timely and orderly resolution in order to stabilise and secure continuity for a failing authorized institution or within scope financial institution in Hong Kong. In particular, the relevant resolution authority is provided with powers to affect contractual and property rights as well as payments (including in respect of any priority of payment) that creditors would receive in resolution. These may include, but are not limited to, powers to cancel, write off, modify, convert or replace all or a part of the Warrants or cash payment under the Warrants, and powers to amend or alter the contractual provisions of the Warrants, all of which may adversely affect the value of the Warrants, and the holders thereof may suffer a loss of some or all of their investment as a result. Holders of the Warrants may become subject to and bound by the FIRO.

On 25 June 2021, the government of Hong Kong published the Financial Institutions (Resolution) (Contractual Recognition of Suspension of Termination Rights – Banking Sector) Rules (the "Stay Rules") in the Gazette. The Stay Rules have come into operation on 27 August 2021 following completion of the vetting process by the Legislative Council of Hong Kong. Subject to certain transitional periods, entities subject to the Stay Rules are required to adopt appropriate provisions in certain financial contracts to the effect that the contractual parties agree to be bound by the temporary stay that may be imposed by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority under the FIRO, which may in turn affect any in-scope financial contracts between a qualifying entity and its counterparty(ies).

As the implementation of FIRO remains untested and certain details relating to FIRO will be set out through secondary legislation and supporting rules, we are unable to assess the full impact of FIRO, the Stay Rules, any potential secondary legislation and/or supporting rules and regulations made under FIRO on the financial system generally, our counterparties, us, any of our consolidated subsidiaries, our operations and/or our financial position. In the worst case scenario, you may get nothing back and the maximum loss could be 100% of your initial investment amount.

Recent and future U.S. government actions
The US government's recent and future actions against mainland China and Hong Kong may affect the price or value of the underlying equities or indices (as applicable) and the prevailing trading price of the Warrants. There can be no assurances that any future actions taken by the U.S. government (or other governments) against mainland China and Hong Kong will not have an adverse effect on the trading price or value of the Warrants.

Restrictions on E.O. 13959 U.S. Persons
To the extent the Warrants include underlying securities that are or become E.O. 13959 Restricted Underlyings, E.O. 13959 U.S. Persons are or will be restricted under 31 C.F.R. Part 586 from purchasing and selling the Warrants, which may adversely affect the prevailing trading price of the Warrants. E.O. 13959 U.S. Persons are urged to seek independent legal advice regarding compliance with 31 C.F.R. Part 586.

Updated information

S Abdulfattah Sayed Mansoor SHARAF has been appointed as a non-executive Director of the Issuer with effect from 17 September 2026.

On 21 September 2026, the U.S. Treasury Department and Internal Revenue Service issued an updated notice to extend the transitional relief period of Section 871(m) withholding regulations on dividend equivalent payments until 1 January 2029.

Accordingly, the first two paragraphs in the sub-section titled "Legislation Affecting Dividend Equivalent Payments" in the section headed "TAXATION" on page 131 of the Base Listing Document shall be deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

"Section 871(m) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Section 871(m)") and the U.S. Treasury Regulations thereunder generally require withholding of up to 30 per cent. (depending on whether an income tax treaty or other exemption applies) on payments or deemed payments made to non-U.S. persons on certain financial instruments (including, for example, the structured products) to the extent that such payments are contingent upon or determined by reference to U.S.-source dividends. With respect to financial instruments issued before 1 January 2029 (and not "significantly modified" on or after 1 January 2029), this withholding should generally apply to financial instruments that have a delta of 1. Certain exceptions may apply to an issue of financial instruments that reference an underlying that is treated as a "qualified index".

With respect to a financial instrument issued on or after 1 January 2029, (a) a "simple" financial instrument that has a delta of 0.8 or greater with respect to an underlying and (b) a "complex" financial instrument that meets the "substantial equivalence test" with respect to an underlying will be subject to withholding under Section 871(m). The delta of a simple instrument is determined, and the substantial equivalence test for a complex instrument is performed, on the earlier of the date that the financial instrument is priced and the date when the financial instrument is issued; however, the issue date must be used if the financial instrument is priced more than 14 calendar days before it is issued."
